

Code of Conduct

Introduction:

We know that our people make us an institute like no other. It's your values, action and passion that make the difference. That's why we have a Code of Conduct. We expect the highest standards of social and ethical conduct, and believe all our staff deserves a fair workplace, and treatment with the utmost dignity and respect.

Purpose of the Code of Conduct:

The Code of Professional Conduct for Teachers applies to all faculty i.e. Permanent, Core contract and visiting faculty. Its purpose is threefold:

1. It serves as a guiding compass as teachers seek to steer an ethical and respectful course through their career in teaching and to uphold the honor and dignity of the teaching profession.
2. It may be used by the education community and the wider public to inform their understanding and expectations of the teaching profession in India.
3. It has an important moral standing and may be used by the governing bodies as a reference point to exercise its functions dealing with fitness to teach.

Standards of Teaching, Knowledge, Skill, Competence and conduct:

The role of the teacher is to educate. The following ethical values underpin the standards of teaching, knowledge, skill, competence and conduct as set out in this code. On behalf of the teaching profession, the institute sets out the following standards that apply to all registered teachers regardless of their position.
